

Main Link to Evidence Web pages:

<http://www2.hawaii.edu/~ballao/projects/etec602/index.html>

This link only connects the pages together for easy reference. However, each evidence page does not have a hyperlink to return to the index.html page.

Evidence Blurbs for Evidence Web Pages:

1. Feathers - This feather was found near the crime scene. A near-by witness saw the suspect drop it while running from the hot dog cart.
2. Wings -Eye-witness Tippy Hedrone described the suspect as having wings rather than arms
3. Bipedal - Jenkins witnessed that the suspect stood on two feet.
4. Warm-blooded - Dr Grishom while doing a thermal survey of the area at the time registered the suspect as being warm blooded
5. Egg-laying - Fleeing the scene, these pieces of shell fell off the suspect.
6. Vertebrate - a biologist specializing in invertebrates, Dr. Merfa witnessing the event described the suspect as not an invertebrate
7. Beak - a few hot dogs left at scene had definitive beak marks them
8. Cross - continental - an anonymous informant tips us off that the suspect has homes on every continent in the world.
9. Jar - this object was located at the scene but determined to be the vendor's.
10. Bicycle - this object was located at the scene but determined to be owned by Dr. Grishom.
11. Fork - this object was located at the scene but determined to be the vendor's.
12. Skye Vodka - this object was located at the scene but determined to be the personal property of a businessman on a lunch break.
13. Hair - these luscious locks fell off a by-stander at the scene.
14. Rubber Glove - this object was located at the scene but determined to be the vendor's.
15. HDTV - located at a near-by restaurant, this object was determined to have nothing to do with the investigation
16. Snickers - this objects was for sale at the scene and determined not to belong to the suspect
17. Table - this object was located at the scene but determined to be the vendor's.
18. Nail polish - Owned by Tippy Hedrone, dropped this from her purse while ordering hot dog.